CLIFFORD CHANCE SEMINARS AND BRIEFINGS

Clifford Chance Webinar: Tougher regulation and more class action risks – what consumer goods and retail businesses need to know

The next webinar in the Spring Perspectives Series will be presented online by Kaitlyn Beyer, Ryan Draper, Michael Grenfell, Danielle Morello, Priscilla Tatschner and Danielle Zandi on Thursday 23 April at 8am EDT / 1pm BST / 2pm CEST / 8pm HKT.

As regulations develop to prevent harm to consumers across many jurisdictions, our panel will look at emerging issues and risks for businesses in the CG&R sector, including enforcement trends, antitrust, consumer protection, class action claims, greenwashing and other environmental and sustainability issues

Clifford Chance Seminar: Managing political risk in a volatile world

The following seminar in the Spring Perspectives Series will be presented in-person and online by Alex Gabriel, José García Cueto, Peter Harris, Philip Hill, Christopher Ingham and Baljit Rai on Tuesday 28 April at 12pm EDT / 5pm BST / 6pm CEST at our offices in Canary Wharf, London.

As geopolitical volatility increases, businesses are exposed to the risk of loss to assets and interests caused by political action. Investors and asset owners have tools to mitigate these risks – including contractual protections, claims under bilateral investment treaties and political risk insurance – but exercising these rights is rarely straightforward, and claims are often contested.

In this session, our panel will explore how political risk insurance and bilateral investment treaty protections work, the interplay between them, and how to manage them to maximise protection. They will also discuss the issues to consider when making a claim, drawing on our recent success in the English courts.

Clifford Chance Publication: Energy & resources insights 2026

Where are the opportunities for investment and growth in an increasingly complex geopolitical landscape? Energy security and affordability are a top priority for governments around the world, and the demand for clean energy remains strong, with renewables accounting for an increasing share of electricity generation.

Clifford Chance has prepared an article exploring where we see the opportunities for investment, from grid expansion and new nuclear build to liquefied natural gas (LNG).
