CLIFFORD CHANCE SEMINARS AND BRIEFINGS

Clifford Chance Webinar: Is your business prepared for the next wave of group litigation?

The next webinar in the Autumn Perspectives Series will be presented online by Alice Darling, John Friel, Michael Gorrie, Charlotte Spierings and Brad Woodhouse on Tuesday 4 November at 8am EST / 1pm GMT / 2pm CET / 9pm HKT.

Group actions are gaining momentum across Asia Pacific, Europe and the US, driven by easier access to funding and permissive procedural developments. While established claims in traditional forums persist, innovative claimant lawyers are pursuing new, often more complex, group action opportunities. Their targets include public companies, investment funds, and a wide range of consumer and commercial goods and services. Their aims include securing significant financial returns, driving behavioural change or using litigation as a form of private law enforcement. Join our global panel as they examine the latest trends and the emerging targets for collective redress.

Clifford Chance Webinar: Beyond the buzz – smart strategies for AI-driven deals

The following webinar in the Autumn Perspectives Series will be presented online by Jennifer Chimanga, Violetta Kokolus, Milena Robotham and Matthew Warner on Thursday 6 November at 8am EST / 1pm GMT / 2pm CET / 9pm HKT.

As artificial intelligence becomes a more frequent driver of deal value, investors and dealmakers are re-thinking how they assess and negotiate transactions. From concerns around AI washing to the rise of acquihires – where companies are bought primarily for the skills of the employees – market dynamics and regulatory concerns are shifting. Our panel will discuss the legal and regulatory developments that could have an influence on AI-oriented business models and provide practical insights on maximising value in AI-driven M&A and investment.

Clifford Chance Comment: Ukraine – the latest global sanctions and export controls

The US, EU, UK, Poland, Japan, Singapore, Australia and Ukraine have imposed sanctions and export controls on Russia. These new sanctions are complex, multilateral and continue to be incrementally changing in real time in response to the developments on the ground in Ukraine. Our team of sanctions experts is monitoring the situation closely and we will endeavour to keep our briefings up to date.

Clifford Chance has prepared a briefing paper discussing these sanctions and export controls, as well as measures adopted in response by Russia.
