CLIFFORD CHANCE SEMINARS AND BRIEFINGS

Clifford Chance Webinar: Who's responsible when AI goes wrong?

The next webinar in the Spring Perspectives Series will be presented online by Janice Goh (Clifford Chance Cavenagh Law LLP), Peter Isajiw, Jack Harris, Midori Takenaka and Andrea Tuninetti Ferrari on Tuesday 16 June at 8am EDT / 1pm BST / 2pm CEST / 8pm HKT.

AI systems are becoming increasingly sophisticated and widely adopted – making liability and risk allocation critical issues. Who bears the risk when AI fails? What liability does an AI user have and how far do an AI developer's responsibilities extend? How will courts approach disputes involving AI, and what proactive steps can businesses take to mitigate exposure? Our panel will examine legal requirements across multiple jurisdictions and cover product liability, evidential challenges and practical ways to manage and reduce AI-related liability risks.

Clifford Chance Webinar: The forces reshaping the global healthcare and life sciences sectors

The following webinar in the Spring Perspectives Series will be presented online by Diederik Stadig (Senior Healthcare Economist, ING), Joshua Berman, Vasu Muthyala, Torston Syrbe and Janet Whittaker on Thursday 18 June at 8am EDT / 1pm BST / 2pm CEST / 8pm HKT.

Geopolitics is reshaping the foundations of global healthcare. Our panel will explore how escalating tensions are disrupting supply chains, constraining market access and forcing healthcare and life sciences organisations to rethink risk, resilience and new opportunities for their global operations.
