CLIFFORD CHANCE SEMINARS AND BRIEFINGS

Clifford Chance Comment: EU Directive harmonising certain aspects of insolvency law: adopted by the Council

The EU Directive harmonising certain aspects of insolvency law was adopted by the Council on 30 March. Directive \(EU\) 2026/799 has now been published in the Official Journal.

Clifford Chance has prepared a briefing paper on the Directive, which marks a significant milestone in the EU's long running efforts to reduce fragmentation across national insolvency regimes. The Directive, part of the EU's Capital Markets Union agenda, introduces targeted minimum harmonisation in a number of core areas of substantive insolvency law, with the objective of improving legal certainty, predictability and recoveries for creditors and investors operating on a cross border basis.
